

2009 Family Weekend Events

Herberger Institute for Design and the Arts

Office of Student Success Open House and Q & A Sessions with an Advisor

Friday, Oct. 16 from 1–2 p.m., 2–3 p.m. or 3–4 p.m.

Design South (CDS) 101

Family members are invited to attend one of three open house question and answer sessions with an advisor in the Herberger Institute for Design and the Arts to find out general information about the Office of Student Success, student engagement, career planning and curriculum details about Herberger majors. Refreshments will be served.

Free Events:

Friday Conversations @ 11: Nowhere to Hide with Julie Anand, School of Art assistant professor

Friday, Oct. 16, 11 a.m.

Art Museum, Nelson Fine Arts Center

Free

Julie Anand's Material Histories is based on her walks around the Valley; as she moves through the city's neighborhoods, she collects lost and discarded items along the way. Her brilliantly-hued photographs present the found objects like specimens and begin to tell stories of the people who have traveled along the same path - their habits and preoccupations.

ASU Symphony Orchestra Open Rehearsal

Friday, Oct. 16; 12:55–2:50 p.m.

ASU Gammage Auditorium

Sit in on this open rehearsal as the ASU symphony prepares for their performance on October 17.

ASU Sun Devil Marching Band Open Rehearsal

Friday, Oct. 16, 4–6 p.m.

Band practice field located near the football indoor practice facility off of Rural Road, north of University Drive)

Watch and listen to the Sun Devil Marching Band as they rehearse for game day.

Ticketed Events:

Will Eno's Tragedy: a tragedy

Friday and Saturday, Oct. 16 and 17 at 7:30 p.m.; Sunday, Oct. 18 at 2 p.m.

Lyceum Theatre (901 S. Forest Mall)

Tickets: $7–$22

In this satirical look at the power of the media, the setting sun incites panic in a seasoned team of television news reporters.

For up to the minute details about Herberger Institute events, please visit:

herbergerinstitute.asu.edu/events.